

Matt Reiner

Chief Investment Strategist, Capital Investment Advisors

Matt Reiner is a Chartered Financial Analyst as well as the Chief Investment Officer for Capital Investment Advisors (CIA). Prior to joining CIA in 2009, Matt worked with Bank of America in Boston and also with Charles Schwab in Phoenix.

As Chief Investment Officer, Matt reviews the firm's recommended investments on a daily basis and coordinates the CIA Investment Committee. He focuses a large portion of his time focusing on the macro themes and the impacts they have on CIA's investments, along with closely monitoring the ETF investments CIA utilizes.

Matt graduated from the W.P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University in Tempe, AZ, with a BBA in Finance. He has also passed all three levels of the CFA exam.